STOWE VILLAGE INN BOTH HISTORIC AND HIGH-TECH

Vail Resorts' Epic Pass one of the best buys on snow, with enticing early-bird perks

ROCHELLE LASH

Lauren and Mike Soelch bring a momentous amount of experience in hard-core industries to the quaint art of innkeeping in Stowe, Vt.

He is a robotics engineer and she is a construction project manager. Together they have aced real estate investing and short-term rentals, and now they have transitioned to hospitality at Stowe Village Inn and Grant's Restaurant-Bar.

"The inn is both modern and historic," Mike said. "The vintage appeal is intact, but it has a lot of unexpected technology for an 1833 U.S. National Historic Register building.

"We have powerful Wi-Fi, keyless guest rooms, smart TVs and cloud-based reservations and check-in." The inn is a half-block from Stowe's main street and near a stop of the free shuttle to Stowe Mountain Resort, where lifts are expected to run until mid-April. April 8 eclipse events are planned.

Stowe: Stowe is the most comprehensive, entertaining yearround tourism and sports destination in northern New England.

Both the mountain and the town have been acclaimed as "the best" by publications including Forbes and National Geographic.

Vail Resorts' Epic Pass is one of the best buys on snow – 2024-2025 winter passes went on sale this month with the year's lowest price and a limited-time offer of 10 Buddy Tickets at 45 per cent off. The unlimited Epic Pass costs US$982 (approximately C$1,300) for access to 42 resorts, including Stowe, New Hampshire's Attitash and Wildcat, Vail Mountain and Park City Mountain, as well as western legends like Canada's Whistler Blackcomb and Nakiska (site of the 1988 Olympics). That's amazing value considering single-day tickets can run from C$100 to more than $300 at various areas.

Epic Pass partner resorts include scenic Mont-Ste-Anne and edgy Stoneham in Quebec, and in Europe, Crans-Montana (that's new), Verbier4Vallées, Les 3 Vallées and Ski Arlberg, as well as two snow-laden areas in Japan. Regional offers include the Northeast Value Pass, Epic Day Pass, the Whistler Blackcomb Day Pass and junior prices (epicpass.com).

Stowe's Summer 2024 features hikes or drives up the Toll Road to the top of Mount Mansfield, Vermont's highest peak, and Gondola SkyRides. Watch for thrilling summit events for the eclipse. Vail Resorts' loyalty program Epic Mountain Rewards offers summer savings of up to 20 per cent off food, golf, bike rentals and more.

The historic Stowe Village Inn is home to Grant's Bar & Restaurant, elegant interiors, and rooms in the Main Inn and Modern Motel.

Lodging: The Stowe Village Inn is a prime example of unpretentious Vermont country lodging. It has history, charm, gorgeous public spaces and a choice of fully renovated rooms in the Main Inn or the Modern Motel.

The classic white clapboard exterior, black shutters and distinctive curved veranda speak of the building's genteel origins nearly 200 years ago, but the Soelch team has added today's conveniences and engaging interior design.

The look is pure New England — dark antique furniture mixed with modern leather sofas and linen wing chairs against walls of moss green and snowcap white. It's not at all dated or cluttered, but there are lots of collectibles, original wood floors and elegant pieces like four-poster beds.

The Main Inn rooms have pillow-top mattresses, individual heating/AC and bathrooms with rain showers. The 55-inch smart TVs offer YouTubeTV and onscreen ordering for services like fresh towels. The adjacent Modern Motel, less expensive but with similar amenities, is convenient because you can unload your gear at the door. Dining: Grant's is as popular with locals as it is with visitors, which is a solid sign of good food and generous drinks at reasonable prices. The antique mahogany bar is the social hub, and there are both après-sports action and fine dining in the beautiful indoor solarium and the picturesque outdoor veranda, which overlook Little River. Grant's also is a top venue for weddings and other celebrations. Bar bites
